VOL. 41 NO. 2

PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Todd Hornyak

I would like to look back and review what the 2020 has been like for letter carriers. All letter carriers have faced unexpected changes in how we do our job due to the Coronavirus pandemic. In the beginning of the year when the state of Ohio issued lock down orders and asked family to shelter at home, letter carriers continued to deliver for our customers and the nation. As essential workers we continued to deliver essential mail, medicines, and parcels to the public. Several of our customers with serious health conditions did not want to go out to stores so the increase in online packages was significant. Letter carriers continued to deliver. The last part of the year saw the most intense presidential election in history. The Postal service was in the news regularly because of questions regarding political mail, mail in ballots and absentee ballots. The USPS delivered the election mail and ballots with very few problems as we always have. As soon as the election was over the holiday season rush was on.

Most stations had Carriers report at 6 or 6:30 am to deliver packages, and then come back to the station and case and carry their route. With several carriers on leave due to COVID 19 related issues, carriers also had to carry auxiliary assistance on other routes as well. Once again, thanks for all you do.

Last year the Branch appealed 1,589 cases to the formal step a of the grievance arbitration process. Once again forced overtime violations of Article 8 were the most common grievances being filed with over 500 cases. The next thing was disciplinary grievances with 137 disciplines issued. Of the disciplines issued there were 61 Letters of Warning, 27 Seven Day Suspensions, 23 Fourteen Day Suspensions and 26 Removals. The next most common cases filed were for carriers being forced over the work hour limits in the national agreement with over 100 cases. Gahanna Station filed the most cases, and most of the cases were regarding Consolidated Casing Initiative. The number of cases filed this year were less than had been filed the last few years I believe this decrease is because our stewards are resolving cases at the lowest level. I want to thank all Union Stewards for the great job they have done in representing the membership.

November 25, 2020 it was announced that the National Association of Letter Carriers and the U.S. Postal Service had reached tentative agreement on a new 44-month national labor agreement, covering the period from September 20, 2019, to May 20, 2023. We have been informed that all ballots regarding contract ratification had been mailed out by January 20. The ballots must be received back at National by February 16, 2021 to be counted. Please take the time to read the tentative agreement and vote on the proposed new national agreement.

I would like to congratulate Tony Haughn and Robert Butts from South Columbus Station, Kenna Allison from Northwest Station and Karin Haser from Delaware Post Office on their recent retirement. I wish them the best on their retirement. I want to again thank all letter carriers for the amazing job you continue to do delivering the mail daily for our customers. Currently sixty-two letter carriers represented by Branch 78 have tested positive with a confirmed

Well, we made it to 2021, barely. At the end of the Christmas rush, the Columbus processing plant was still buried in packages that were due out before Christmas. Discussing the matter with other branches we found out this issue was extremely chronic across the country. It is easy to piece together what happened to create this disaster for the USPS. Combine what looked to be a purposeful and intentional slow down of service by USPS Postal executives, along with massive understaffing, high rates of sick leave due to COVID, a huge increase of online shopping and our competitors Fed Ex and UPS dumping millions of parcels on the USPS all put the USPS on overload. Carriers in Branch 78 did not see parcel volumes peak until the week of Christmas, and then unlike past years, the parcels continued to be extremely heavy for weeks after the holiday. Carriers reported parcels up to three weeks late in some of our offices. We are just now getting caught up in Central Ohio. I want to thank all the NALC members for their hard work, long hours, and dedication to ensure the USPS and its customers received the service they deserved.

The Coronavirus Family First Act (Cares Act) expired at midnight December 31, 2020. With the expiration of this act came the end of 12 weeks of FMLA coverage for COVID related issues. This includes paid time off (administrative leave) for full-time employees who came in contact with someone who had COVID-19 or a carrier themselves who tested positive for COVID-19. Other provisions that were eliminated included, paid leave for 10 weeks at two thirds pay for loss of child care, serious medical conditions and other COVID related issues. Hopefully, by the time the membership reads this article, Congress will have taken up the matter in the new Congressional session. If you are a letter carrier under Branch 78 and still struggling with child care issues, the branch and its stewards will do everything possible to help protect you from disciplinary action.

The US Postal Service agreed to extend many of the COVID related memorandums including the M-01910 Expanded Sick Leave dependent care, M-01911 Temporary Use of the 7:01 rule, M-01914 Liberal changes of sick leave, M-01915 Social Distancing Memo and M-01916 allowing the Postal Service to hire additional employees. M-01910 and M-019011 were also renewed extending the sick leave dependent care definition for loss of childcare and granting CCAs two weeks of emergency sick leave. Carriers who contract COVID-19 and have been exposed at work have a right to file a CA-1 and make a case to claim it as a work-related injury. This form can be downloaded online <https://www.ecomp.dol.gov/#/>. Anyone making this claim must provide a detailed narrative of when they believe they came in contact with the virus and/or when they were exposed. Also, the carrier might want to give a detailed account as to why they do not believe they could have been exposed at home or after hours.

I received a phone call from retired letter carrier, John O'Neil the other day. Retirees did not receive their normal December OPM estimate this year. A quick phone call to the National Director of Retirees, Dan Toth, who let me know that OPM failed to send out annuity estimates across the country. The Retirees department has filed inquiries with OPM to see what happened and have yet to hear back on the matter. Retirees should have received annuities reflecting a COLA increase of 1.2%. This will be somewhat offset in the February annuity payment due to the increase in health benefits costs.

Time has drastically changed the way we live due to the COVID-19. This includes training at the union hall. To ensure our stewards are still receiving the latest updated information, we have been conducting teleconferences and Power Point presentations at each stewards meeting. Around 20 of the branches newest stewards will attend Region 11 New Steward training in January and February via Zoom. The training will provide a hands on approach with a step-by-step process on how to handle a disciplinary case. After talking to other carriers and branches in other regions, I'm proud to say that Branch 78 and Region 11 Business Agent, Mark Camilli offer our stewards top of the line training.

I would like to end this article by thanking our outgoing Director of Retirees, Doug Gulley for his many years of service to the members of Branch 78. Doug was cer-

We have cause to celebrate, yes New Years is passed but Letter Carriers have a Tentative Agreement, at last. Considering our contract expired September 2019 this is fantastic news beside the fact it did not go to an Arbitrator. That is toast worthy. There are a number of pay increases and COLAS but finally some important changes for our City Carrier Assistants. Most important is the definitive path to career status and pay changes. We have to ratify this agreement for it to become our contract. It is imperative that each of us review the information sent from the National along with the ballot. Don't put it on the back burner as all votes must be received by February 16, 2021. We all know that service is not what it should be. I got a birthday card last week postmarked 12/27/20 from Washington Court House, Ohio, about forty minutes south of Columbus. Another friend got a card postmarked 12/19/20 from Pickerington, Ohio going to Carroll, OH or 9.6 miles that arrived January 21, 2021. That is pathetic. If you want your ballot counted get it back in the mail stream as fast as possible. We definitely need delivery standard reinstated. No wonder no one mails bill payments anymore, we are not dependable. Save that for later, please look at the outline and new contract and mail your ballot back to the National.

Another celebratory moment was the Inauguration of Joseph R. Biden as the 46th President and Kamala Harris as the first woman of African American and Asian descent as Vice President of the United States of America. President Biden has selected a Cabinet that is racially diverse as our get nation. I personally am anxious, to see how fiscally conservative the former party in charge is going to be after their eight years as deficit hawks under the Obama administration and total lack of constraint these past four years. I believe we are all waiting to see the handling of those involved in the insurrection against the Capitol January 6. Time will tell.

There are a lot of ties on the agenda these next hundred days with respect to establishing a National COVID response to get the disease better controlled. Get vaccinations done quickly to the majority of citizens. India had the most aggressive plan laid out for mass immunizations with a dry run held to see where it needed tweaked. Perhaps we can take some queues from their rollout. We have to be willing to cooperate if we want to improve our economic situation. Long before the pandemic I lived in Japan. It was common courtesy to not leave home without a mask if you had any cold symptoms let alone a viral pandemic. It seems like such a small ask to slow the spread. Let each of us encourage our peers and families to follow the SOPs to lessen the effect of COVID on each other. Cover your nose and mouth with masks, wash hands frequent as possible, refrain from touching your face and maintain social distancing.

tainly a great mentor when I first started my career as Vice President. He always made himself available for advice and offered help to the branch when he could. Also, I want to thank Chuck Snyder, who lost his bid for Sergeant at Arms in a very tightly contested race. Chuck was the alternate steward at the Central Point Office when I first started and was a mentor to me. He always watched out for the carriers like a big brother. He will be missed for his hard work and dedication on the Board. I would be remiss if I did not take the opportunity to thank Brenda Stidams and Ed Thomas for their years of dedication to the members of Branch 78. Thank you for your service on the Executive Board of Branch 78. I look forward to working with the members of the new Executive Board as we tackle these tough times ahead.
